

RULES:

- Use the shower with warm water and soap before entering the pool!
- NO OUTSIDE FOOD OR BEVERAGES!!! Water in an unbreakable, closable container allowed.
- No food, gum, or beverages in pool or dressing rooms. Food/Beverages only allowed in the Concession area
- Kids under the age of 7 must be with a responsible caregiver 14 years of age or older.
- No person with obvious communicable disease, skin eruption, cut, sore or lesion, eye, ear, nose, or throat infection shall be permitted in the pool.
- No use or evidence of use of drugs or alcohol products. No use of tobacco products.
- No use of profanity, vulgarity or acts of disrespectful behavior.
- Spitting, spouting of water, blowing nose or any other similar activities in the pool shall be prohibited.
- No running, boisterous or rough play (except during supervised water sports) shall be permitted in the pool, on the runways, diving boards, or in the dressing rooms. No “bombing,” dunking, or extensive splashing in the pool.
- Must be 48 inches tall in order to use water slides and a proficient swimmer.
- No diving allowed in marked areas. The only diving that can be done is off the diving boards.
- One person on the diving board at a time
- No repeated bouncing on the diving boards
- No swimming in diving area
- No hanging on the pool ropes
- Life jackets or inflatables will not be allowed in the diving board or slide area
- May use soft, squeezable balls only. No large torpedo toys allowed. (Manager discretion)
- No street clothes, including gym shorts and cut-offs in the pool, however, adults supervising small children in the shallow area may wear clothes without shoes.
- No unnecessary visiting with the lifeguards.
- Not responsible for lost or stolen items
- Weather – no refunds for inclement weather

Please review these rules with all family members before using the pool. Lifeguards are hired to provide a safe recreational environment for all patrons of the pool. It is not their intended purpose to perform “baby sitting” activities and discipline unruly patrons. There will be “Little Tolerance” exercised in disciplining acts of willful disobedience and acts of disrespect!! Your assistance in guiding family members in the use of the pool is greatly appreciated.